

80TH
SEASON

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 80th season of our beautiful concert series.

Subject to Government guidance concerning Covid-19, at the time of writing we are planning to go ahead with the season and once again, we look forward to welcoming some world class musicians: The Tallis Scholars in Chapel to open proceedings, followed by the renowned pianist, Imogen Cooper, the dynamic and colourful saxophonist, Jess Gillam, the celebrated and ever-green Black Dyke Band and MCCS firm favourites, Southbank Sinfonia to finish the season. You will recognise that this is a direct copy of the line-up of season 2020/21 which, sadly, we had to cancel.

I am delighted to report that we have been able to hold the price of single concert tickets at £20 for another year. Following our last committee meeting, a decision was taken, however, to make a small modification to the discount applied to the purchase of tickets for multiple concerts. For those who wish to purchase a ticket for all five of the concerts in the season, the cost is now £90, which I hope you'll agree represents excellent value for money.

I remain indebted to our sponsors, particularly in these challenging times and of course, should the details regarding any of our concerts change because of the current situation, we will be in touch to advise you.

Enjoy the music!
